

2018 OSCE Annual Police Experts Meeting

FUTURE POLICING STRATEGIES: Addressing Trends and Changes in a Globalized World

22-23 October 2018
Hofburg/Vienna

ORGANIZATIONAL MODALITIES

Participants

The suggested level of participants for this event is senior-level law enforcement managers and experts, prosecutors and other criminal justice practitioners, as noted in the invitation letter.

It is expected that participants will share concrete examples, good practices and lessons learnt on the topics outlined in the indicative agenda. Participating States and Partners for Co-operation are strongly encouraged to identify appropriate participants from relevant government ministries/police agencies/institutions in order to take an active and meaningful part in discussions and reach constructive conclusions.

Please note that active discussion between participants is considered the most beneficial aspect of this meeting. Participants are strongly encouraged to discuss and share specific experiences, to identify needs and areas of possible improvement, and to utilize expertise of panelists. To promote interactive discussion, statements and interventions in response to keynote speakers should focus on concrete examples and recommendations, and be as concise as possible, not exceeding 2 – 3 minutes.

Moderators

Each session will be chaired by a moderator who will introduce the keynote speakers and will facilitate the discussions. Moderators will strictly enforce time limits and will ensure that speakers and participants limit their presentations and contributions to substantive issues only. Moderators are expected to serve as rapporteurs in the sense of summarizing the presentations and discussions, as well as suggesting how the OSCE could continue working in this field, complementing efforts of international/regional organizations.
