

OSCE Annual Police Experts Meeting

“Fighting the Threat of Cyber Crime”

20 - 21 September 2012

Hofburg, Congress Centre
Ratsaal, 5th floor
Vienna
Austria

AGENDA

Thursday, 20 September 2012

- |                      |                               |
|----------------------|-------------------------------|
| 12.30 – 14.30 | Registration    |
| 13.30 – 15.00 | Lunch                  |
| 15.00 – 15.30 | Opening Session |

Chair:

Mr. Knut Dreyer,
Senior Police Adviser, OSCE Transnational Threats Department, Head of Strategic Police Matters Unit

Welcoming remarks by:

- H.E. Ambassador Eoin O’Leary, Permanent Representative of Ireland, Chairman of the Permanent Council
- Mr. Alexey Lyzhenkov, OSCE Co-ordinator of Activities to Address Transnational Threats

15.30 – 17:30

Session I – Cybercrime Prevention and Capacity Building

As an outcome of the 2008 Annual Police Experts' Meeting on Cybercrime, the OSCE has facilitated a number of law enforcement cybercrime investigation courses. During these trainings it became evident that more attention must be devoted to preventing cybercrime before it takes place. This session will examine good practices associated with preventing cybercrime. The session will also cover issues with capacity building within the criminal justice sector.

Moderator: Mr. Cormac Callanan

Rapporteur: Ms. Alexandra Prevedourakis

Keynote speakers:

- Joint presentation of Mr. Steven Malby and Mr. Cameron Brown - Legal and Forensics Specialist of UNODC, Austria
- Mr. Nemanja Malisevic – Cyber Security Officer, OSCE TNTD/CC
- Mr. Paul Gillen – Head of the Garda Computer Crime Investigation Unit and Chairman of the European Cybercrime Training and Education Group, Garda Siochana, Ireland

Discussion

Friday, 21 September 2012

9.30 – 11:00

Session II – Improving Co-operation between Law Enforcement Agencies and the Private and Academic Sectors

A number of academic institutions are assisting law enforcement agencies to improve their capacity to investigate cyber crime. In many instances significant technical advice is provided without cost. Participants will hear presentations about examples of good practice. Discussions will examine how these effective practices may be replicated.

Moderator: Mr. Paul Gillen

Rapporteur: Mr. Robert Hampshire

Keynote speakers:

- Ms. Cheryl Baker – Head of Unit, Centre for Cybercrime Investigation (CCI), University College Dublin (UCD), Ireland
- Mr. Cormac Callanan – 2 Centre (Cybercrime Centres of Excellence Network for Training Research and Education), Ireland
- Mr. Iliya Sachkov, Director General of the Group-IB Company - Russian Federation

Discussion

11:00 – 11.30            Coffee Break

11:30 – 13:00            Session III – Exchange of Information

This Session will focus on examining methods that will improve co-operation between law enforcement agencies that are involved in the investigation of cyber crime. Special attention will be devoted to the rapid exchange of information.

Along with providing investigators with up-to-date training, law enforcement agencies must develop mechanisms that facilitate effective communication and networking with their counterparts. The participants will learn about existing and planned networks. Discussions will focus on examining possibilities to make them more effective.

Moderator: Mr. Nemanja Malisevic

Rapporteur: Ms. Hana Snajdrova / Mr. Murat Yildiz

Keynote Speakers:

- Mr. Peter Cassidy – Secretary General / Co-founder of the Anti-Phishing Working Group, USA
- Mr. Mikailo Tijanić – Ministry of Interior, Service for Combating Organized Crime, Serbia
- Mr. Philipp Amann – Information Management Officer, OSCE TNTD/CC

Discussion

13.00 – 14.30            Lunch

14.30 – 16.00            Session III – Continued

- Mr. Bilal Sen – Head of Division at the Cyber Security Department, Turkish National Police, Turkey
- Ms. Cristina Schulman – Head of Cybercrime Unit, Council of Europe, France

Discussion

Closing Remarks by Mr. Knut Dreyer,
Senior Police Adviser, OSCE Transnational Threats Department, Head of Strategic Police Matters Unit