Erik Johansen, CPCC
Chief Superintendent, Police Advisor

OSCE – Vienna – 9 June 2016

Intelligence-Led Policing
Outline – introduction

• Who we are
• What we do
• Where we do it
• Why we do ILP
• ...and how do we do it.....
Who we are

CPCC:
Civilian Planning & Conduct Capability

Permanent Headquarters for civilian missions of the EU's Common Security and Defence Policy.
What we do

• Operational planning and conduct of the missions
• Command & Control at strategic level for all missions
• Ensures duty of care for personnel deployed
Where we do it

Staff figures:
- Int 1400
- Nat 1200
Why we do ILP

- To strengthen police forces in host countries;
- Increased calls for police to be more effective and cost-efficient;
- To have a modern police methodology;
- To support the fight against serious and organised crime;
- Create the basis for targeted policing and crime fighting;
How do we do it....

Handbook – Intelligence Led Policing (ILP) for civilian CSDP Missions

- 'Hands-on' approach
- Practical examples
- Generic concepts
- Course curricula
Intelligence Led Policing

Overall Cycle:
- Intelligence Cycle: Collection, Collation, Analysis, Dissemination, Evaluation
- Operations Cycle: Direction & Planning, Operations, Prevention, Detect, Arrest, Prosecution (when applicable)

Priority Setting:
- PRIORITY, DIRECTION & PLANNING, COLLECTION, EVALUATION, DISSEMINATION, ANALYSIS

Intelligence Cycle:
- Collection -> Collation -> Analysis -> Dissemination

Operations Cycle:
- Direction & Planning -> Operations -> Prevention, Detect, Arrest, Prosecution (when applicable)
And we do also work on:

Operational guidelines on:

- Public Order Policing
- Integrated Border Management
- Legislative Drafting/Legal Reform in the Justice Area
- Maritime Security
- ....more to come.......

European Union
EXTERNAL ACTION
Thank you!